JPB Partners Today Announced It Has Hired Andrew Berdahl as an Analyst in its Private Equity division

COLUMBIA, MD, September 4, 2018 – JPB Partners has hired Andrew Berdahl as an analyst in its private equity group to support the company's continued growth.

"We are always excited to be able to add new, talented people to the JPB team. Given our continued growth plans, we are thrilled to be joined by Andrew, who is filling a critical role within the firm. Andrew's intellectual curiosity and financial modeling experience makes him an excellent addition to our team."

Berdahl joins JPB Partners as an analyst and will be responsible for deal origination, transaction execution, and portfolio analysis.

Berdahl was formerly a financial analyst with a private family office in Washington DC where he was responsible for financial management, modeling and research of current and new investments. Berdahl earned a BA in Economics from Penn State University and a Master of Science in Economics from Johns Hopkins University.
