JPB Partners, Private Equity Announces Promotion of Chandler Rohde to Associate

Hanover, Maryland – September 12, 2023: JPB Partners, LLC (“JPB”), an alternative investment firm specializing in the investment of equity capital in private equity and real estate transactions primarily in the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast US, has announced the promotion of Chandler Rohde from Analyst to Associate.

Since joining the firm in February of 2021, Chandler has supported the private equity investment team in business development, due diligence, and portfolio management. Chandler has also led the business development effort with JPB's portfolio company, The Helpful Hardware Company, which has completed 10 acquisitions in the past 3 years.

“Chandler’s work ethic, analytical skills, and commitment to our company’s mission have been outstanding. This promotion is a testament to his hard work and contributions to our team’s success. I am confident that Chandler will continue to excel in his new role and play a pivotal part in our continued growth,” stated Jim Bolduc, President & CEO of JPB Partners.

Prior to joining JPB Partners, Chandler was a Private Equity Senior Analyst with Search Fund Accelerator and an Analyst with Dyal Capital Partners.
